

Driving Directions to the Bay Area Discovery Museum

If you are running late or are lost, please call the Education Programs Coordinator at 415-339-3978

From San Francisco/ South Bay:

- After you cross the Golden Gate Bridge, take the first exit, Alexander Avenue.
- Go right towards the city of Sausalito, down the hill a couple hundred yards.
- Turn left (there isn't a street sign), following signs for "Marin Headlands/ East Fort Baker."
- Make a hairpin right turn onto Bunker Road right before the tunnel.
- Follow the road around the field at the bottom of the hill.
- Carpoolers should turn left into the parking lot.
- Bus drivers should unload their passengers in the turnaround in front of the Museum, then park in the oversized bus parking at the waterfront. Buses may not idle within National Park Land.

From the North Bay:

- Head towards San Francisco on 101 South.
- Make sure to take the second "Sausalito" Exit, the last exit BEFORE you get on the Golden Gate Bridge.
- At the stop sign, go right towards the city of Sausalito (there is a small brown sign directing you towards the Bay Area Discovery Museum).
- Turn left (there isn't a street sign), following signs for "Marin Headlands/ East Fort Baker."
- Make a hairpin right turn onto Bunker Road right before the tunnel.
- Follow the road around the field at the bottom of the hill.
- Carpoolers should turn left into the parking lot.
- Bus drivers should unload their passengers in the turnaround in front of the Museum, then park in the oversized bus parking at the waterfront. Buses may not idle within National Park Land.
